Many thanks for handling my monthly savings plans and filing my tax rental returns for all the times that I have been employed at Saudi Aramco. Your team has always been quick to respond to my questions and never missed a tax filing deadline over the past eleven years. I am completely pleased with the sound and balanced advice that the Expatriate Group has provided and sleep better knowing that my family's finances are being regularly reviewed and reported on by your experienced and honest company... Fraser B., February 5, 2010, Dhahran, Saudi Arabia (Client since 1998)

My wife and I recently returned from a four year assignment in Egypt. During the time in Egypt and for several years back in Canada, we utilized the services of the Expat Group. After retiring from a lengthy career in Education we were given the opportunity to continue that career at an international school in Egypt. It was the opportunity of a lifetime, but uprooting ourselves and facing the unknown was also somewhat unnerving. We quickly learned that there was a lot of bureaucracy to contend with to become a nonresident, if you didn't want to face difficulties down the road. It was at that point that we decided to enlist the services of The Expatriate Group Inc. During our time as nonresidents, that we decided to enlist the services of The Expatriate Group Inc. During our time as nonresidents, the necessary forms for nonresidency, income tax filing and any other request from Canada Revenue Agency (CRA). Knowing that they were taking care of this major part of being a nonresident gave my wife and myself peace of mind and allowed us to better enjoy the fantastic and memorable experience of living and working in Egypt. ... S.& Nick F., January 12, 2010, Calgary, AB

We have been back in Canada for 3 years now and I want to say thanks again for all your help. Our return to Canada after being away for 10 years was overwhelming at first, but luckily I came across your website and you were instrumental in helping us navigate our way through the repatriate process. Without your help I'm sure I'd still be sitting here with unanswered questions. Instead, we are now happily settled with 2 children, a new life in Canada, and a wealth of unforgettable travel memories. I've referred your company to friends and colleagues many times now and will continue to do so." ... Kris and Ana, January, 2007, UK/Bahamas

"I want to commend you and your efficient, pleasant staff for the professional support, and timely advice given to me during our five year association in Saudi Arabia. You were instrumental in providing me with invaluable information regarding non-residency; set up my overseas account and bond funds; arranged for tax consultation, wire transfers; and advised on coping with culture shock. I have found your one stop financial services excellent and attuned to my needs. I believe I could not find such comprehensive, reliable and personable services under one umbrella company anywhere else. The fees charged by The Expatriate Group Inc., are very reasonable for the broad range of professional services provided and worth every penny. Please feel free to share my commendations with prospective clients, as I have done with my own friends and colleagues." ... Dawn G. B. We're tremendously pleased with the help and support we've been receiving from [Tom Boleantu] and The Expatriate Group. It's been a great relief to know that we had all our ducks in order when we left Canada. There was so much to arrange and we would have undoubtedly made a mess of it all on our own! I can't tell you how many times since we arrived that I've heard your advice in my head – like how to deal with the day-to-day frustrations of adapting to a new culture. I have no doubt it's in large measure due to your help that we're so comfortable and happy just 5 months into this adventure. Anyway, thanks so much for smoothing the way. There's an awful lot to cope with in moving to another country – sometimes I wonder if I'd have agreed to this had I known how much! But Brian and I have said so many times it would have been a nightmare without [Tom Boleantu] and the Expat Group to guide us." ... Jane and Brian, March 14, 1999, Bahrain

I thought I'd give you a few comments on my experience preparing for Jakarta financially. [A leading accounting firm] has provided me with information about Canadian non-residency status and tax issues as promised. While this information was no doubt accurate, I have to say that I did not have confidence that it was complete since I could only seem to get information issues I was already aware of or about things I could ask questions directly on. [The leading firm] was very vague on specifics of how to handle cancellations of accounts, etc. and especially investment issues. Therefore, I sought out other information sources to fill the gaps. I came across Tom Boleantu with The Expatriate Group and was pleased not only with the financial advice but with other information and advice about wills, insurance, cancelling accounts and affairs prior to departure etc. I was offered culture shock advice and tax preparation services but my company had those areas covered already. I guess I needed interpreted advice for my specific case and not just general information." ... Mr. G.B., P.Eng; TLM; Jakarta

Tom...I wanted to take this opportunity to thank you for your efforts and for the value your organization has provided to me. The stress during my transition to becoming an international staff member has been markedly reduced due to your competence and professionalism. Your services are greatly appreciated." ... Mr. S.M.
