LIST OF PROPERTIES BY AN EMIGRANT OF CANADA

Last name		First name			Social insurance number
Mailing address				Date of emigration from Canada	Year	Month	Day

Complete this form if you ceased to be a resident of Canada in the year and the fair market value of all the properties you owned when you left Canada was more than $25,000, not including the following properties:

- i) cash (including bank deposits);
- ii) pension plans, annuities, registered retirement savings plans, registered retirement income funds, registered education savings plans, registered disability savings plans, tax-free savings accounts, retirement compensation arrangements, employee benefit plans, and certain other deferred benefit plans;
- iii) property you owned when you last became a resident of Canada, or property you inherited after you last became a resident of Canada, if you were a resident of Canada for 60 months or less during the 10-year period before you emigrated and the property is not taxable Canadian property; and
- iv) any item of personal-use property (such as your household effects, clothing, cars, collectibles) that has a fair market value of less than $10,000.

Attach a completed copy of this form to your tax return. File your return by the filing due date. The penalty for failing to file this form by the due date is $25 per day you are late. There is a minimum penalty of $100, and a maximum penalty of $2,500.

Add to final departure tax return. If held jointly, then include 50% of total value

List of properties PENALTIES ACCRUE IF NOT FILED (See above)

List below all properties and their fair market value, and indicate either (C) for Canadian properties or (F) for foreign properties (outside of Canada), that you owned on the date you ceased to be resident of Canada.

Property includes shares (both public and private), bonds, debentures, promissory notes, treasury bills, interests in trusts, interests in partnerships, personal-use property, business property (including inventory), real property, and security options.

Do not list any property described in (i) to (iv) above. If you need more space, attach a separate sheet of paper.
